

and the Muslim Public Affairs Council present

Guilty Until Proven Innocent:
A Panel Discussion of Civil Rights Abuses Against Muslim Americans and Middle Easterners

Featuring Georgetown Law Professor David Cole

Author of the award winning book “Less Safe, Less Free: Why America Is Losing the War on Terror” (New Press, 2007)

&

Dr. Layla Al-Marayati, Chairperson, KinderUSA

Dr. Maher Hathout, Senior Advisor, Muslim Public Affairs Council

Moderated by Cheryl I. Harris, UCLA Law Professor

A panel discussion of recent cases impacting constitutional rights and the racialization of Muslims and Middle Easterners, including, the “LA 8 Case,” the Muslim Charities Cases, and the “unindicted co-conspirators list”

Friday, January 11th, 2008
UCLA Law Building Room 1457
12:00pm to 1:30pm

 This event will end in time for Friday prayer. Prayer location will be announced at the end of the event*

Please RSVP to crs@law.ucla.edu

The mission of the Critical Race Studies Program (CRS at UCLA) is to think new ideas, teach new scholars and transform racial justice advocacy

Co-sponsors: David J. Epstein Program in Public Interest Law and Policy, the American Constitution Society and Muslim Law Students Association at UCLA School of Law, UCLA Journal of Islamic and Near Eastern Law