

UCLA | SCHOOL OF LAW
LAW FELLOWS PROGRAM

February 2014

Dear Friends,

Now in our 17th year of the Law Fellows Program at UCLA School of Law, we write to ask for your support.

To date, nearly 1,400 students have participated in the program. Over 550 Law Fellows have attended more than 60 law schools across the country. Scores of other Fellows have gone on to succeed in an impressive array of academic and career endeavors.

The program has been recognized as a national model of academic outreach and development. Last year, the program was chosen by the Mexican American Bar Association to receive the Justice Cruz Reynoso Community Service Award, and received the America Bar Association's 2013 Alexander Award. In addition to these honors, this year the program has expanded to California's Central Valley and the directors were awarded the Trailblazer Award and the Community Service Award by For People of Color, Inc.

Your support is instrumental in encouraging and supporting Fellows as they navigate their educational and career paths. We invite you to join in supporting the Law Fellows Program. "As a Law Fellow alum, I know that the Law Fellows Program provides just the sort of polishing that socioeconomically diverse applicants need to make their applications shine. The LSAT test prep scholarship and law school application guidance Law Fellows offers are of immeasurable value for non-traditional law students. By supporting Law Fellows, we help to ensure this same opportunity for the next 1000 alums."
